

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lee E. Miller

Mr. Rothrock is author of the book, ESSAYS ON LEGAL ETHICS AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT IN COLORADO (Continuing Legal Education of Colorado, Inc. 2003, Supp. 2006) and a frequent lecturer on topics of legal ethics and professional conduct. He is a former chair of the Colorado Bar Association Ethics Committee.

Mr. Rothrock's practice emphasizes legal ethics and attorney discipline defense, and the law of practicing law.

Restore Scroller

Print
or pdf

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Burns, Figa & Will, P.C., Greenwood Village, Colorado
6/02 to Present

Attorney – Private practice of water, environmental and governmental law. Represent western natural resource users, particularly agricultural and municipal water providers, before state and federal agencies, Congress and state legislatures, and in state and federal courts. Serve as general and special counsel to several local governments. Serve on the firm's executive committee.

Fairfield and Woods, P.C., Denver, Colorado
3/99 to 6/02

Attorney – Private practice of water, environmental and governmental law.

Colorado Attorney General's Office, Natural Resources Section, Denver, Colorado
1/99 to 3/99

Assistant Attorney General, Water Rights Unit – Represented the state in water rights matters in all phases of litigation, appeals, administrative law matters, rule making, personnel actions and contract negotiation and review. Clients represented include the Department of Natural Resources, the State and Division Engineers, the Water Conservation Board, the Ground Water Commission and the Division of Wildlife.

12/95 to 1/99 First Assistant Attorney General, Water Rights Unit – In addition to carrying a full case load as described in the previous entry, supervised eight to nine attorneys, three paralegals and a secretary; served as the Attorney General's representative to the Colorado Water Conservation Board, and acted as the chief advisor to state agencies, boards and commissions on water matters.

11/98 to 12/98 Acting Deputy Attorney General – Supervised on an interim basis the Natural Resources Section consisting of approximately 40 attorneys and 16 support personnel, while continuing to perform my duties as First Assistant Attorney General for the Water Rights Unit.

U.S. Senator Hank Brown, Washington, D.C.

1/93 to 11/95 Legislative Counsel – Assisted Senator Brown of Colorado with environmental, natural resources, public lands, energy, Indian, government affairs and judiciary issues by drafting legislation, amendments and statements, providing legal advice and representing the Senator at meetings with constituents, state and

- Home
- Welcome
- Practice Areas
- Our People
- News and Events
- Information Request
- Summer Assoc. Program
- Resources
- Contact Us

federal agencies, and Congressional offices. Also served as counsel to the bi-partisan Congressional Western Water Caucus.

Mr. Lee Miller's Biography